Treaty Satoshi-Versmark

Article I

The Governments of the Sovereign State of Versmark, and the Democratic Republic of Satoshi (hereinafter the “parties”), in exercise of their sovereign powers and in accordance with international standards on the recognition of States, declare that they mutually recognize each other as independent, and sovereign micronations.

Article II

Both parties agree to establish mutual diplomatic relations, in accordance with the provisions of the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations of April 18, 1961.

Article III

Both parties declare their willingness to guide their mutual relations in accordance with the international principles of mutual respect, peaceful cooperation, equal treatment, and non-intervention in their internal affairs.

Article IV

The Governments of the signatory micronations agree to mutually promote cultural, scientific, and technical cooperation among their peoples.

Article V

This agreement may be voided by mutual consent of the signatory parties, or in the event of the dissolution of one of the signatory parties. The below signed parties bear the authorization, consent, and position, of the micronation of which they claim to represent.
